State of Hawaii · Bishop Square, 1001 Bishop Street, ASB Tower 970 · Honolulu, Hawaii 96813
50th ANNIVERSARY 1968-2018

MEDIA RELEASE

July 26, 2018

FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURES BY CANDIDATES FOR STATE ELECTIVE OFFICE

All candidates for state elective office are required by law to file a disclosure of financial interests (“candidate financial disclosure”) with the State Ethics Commission.¹ A candidate financial disclosure includes information about a candidate’s sources of income; business ownership interests; officer or director positions in businesses; debts; real property interests; clients represented before state agencies; and creditor interests in an insolvent business. Candidate financial disclosures are public records and are available for public inspection.

The statutory deadline for candidates to file their candidate financial disclosures with the State Ethics Commission was Monday, July 23, 2018. A total of 174 out of 202 candidates filed their disclosures by the deadline.

The State Ethics Commission is required by law to release to the public a list of all candidates who failed to file to a candidate financial disclosure by the statutory deadline, and to assess a late filing penalty fee of $50 against those candidates.²

The State Ethics Commission did not receive a candidate financial disclosure by the statutory deadline from the following candidates and will assess a $50 penalty fee against these candidates:
